Do you have chapter in your area? If you are not sure, explore the SAR website or the S.R. website (LINK) to identify chapter(s) in your area.

- Reach out to one or more SAR/S.R. Chapters and see how your chapter and theirs might work collaboratively.
- Work in partnership with a SAR/S.R. Chapter on a community-centered event or activity, such as a grave marking, historic marking, parade or other event.

- Offer to give a program that meets the NSDAR theme which will promote DAR and SAR.
- Invite a SAR/S.R. member to share a chapter program at your DAR chapter meeting and invite their wife or friend to attend. In welcoming her, you might just find a new member.
- Invite a SAR/S.R. chapter to join your chapter for a joint meeting. Include their wives/sisters/friends in the invitation and who knows you may find new DAR members!
- Refer a husband, son or other relative or friend to a SAR/S.R. chapter for membership. (Form availability from SAR – working on this with Shep Hammack NSSAR DAR Liaison)
